RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On October 21, 2019, Kaylee Nelson filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a SIRVA resulting from adverse effects of a Hep B vaccination she received on February 4, 2019. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 16, 2020, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that Petitioner “has satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table ('Table') and Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation ('QAI'). That is, petitioner had no relevant history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction in her left shoulder; her pain and reduced range of motion occurred within 48 hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; her symptoms were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and, no other condition or abnormality was identified to explain her symptoms." Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that "the scope of damages to be awarded is limited to petitioner's SIRVA and its related sequelae only." Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
